

Student Services Refusal Form

The Student Service refusal process is intended for students that do not plan to a) transfer to a four year college or university, b) obtain an associate degree or, c) enroll in English, reading or math courses with assessment pre-requisites. By signing this form you may be dropped from your English, reading or math course, if proof of the pre-requisite has not been provided. A Counselor can help you decide if refusing these services might negatively affect your future enrollment status. * Academic Enrichment students are not eligible to refuse Student Services.

I understand the importance of participating in state-mandated requirements, and I refuse/decline the following services:

_____ Assessment _____ Orientation _____ Counseling
