

California Symbols

The Sierra College Natural History Museum is home to many of the things designated to be special by the State of California.

ACTIVITY: Connect the dots to find our state marine mammal!

Find out your other California state symbols. Look them up on the internet or at the library.