_____ Student Last Name	_____ First Name	_____ M.I.	_____ Student ID Number

Sierra College is operating under the assumption that all students reside off campus or on campus living in the dorms.

- The cost of attendance for each student varies depending on their housing arrangement. Students who live on campus, off campus, or with parent all have unique assumed costs that are associated with their budgets. With recent changes on the 2024/2025 FAFSA and CADAA application, there is now no question associated with a student's living situation. This is also applied to the 2025/2026 aid year. Sierra College is under the assumption that all students reside off campus or on campus living in the dorms.
- If you reside with your parents, you may update your housing status by submitting the Sierra College Housing Form to the Financial Aid Office. Your financial aid amount may be adjusted after your cost of attendance is changed.

Sign below and submit to Sierra College Financial Aid if the following applies to you:

- I am living with parent(s).

Bring to the Financial Aid Department or email to financialaidquestion@sierracollege.edu.

I acknowledge that updating my housing form to reflect living with my parent(s) may result in changes to my financial aid status, potentially affecting the amount of aid I receive.
