The institution strives to comply with the eligibility requirements, accreditation standards, and policies of the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC). The District is timely and responsive in meeting the reporting and policy requirements of the Commission. The District engages in an inclusive and collaborative process for developing its comprehensive self-evaluation for reaffirmation of accreditation.

The District makes complete and accurate disclosures in order to comply with ACCJC requests, directives, and decisions.

Sierra College has established processes and timelines for use as general guidelines in their six-year accreditation cycle that is prescribed by the Accrediting Commission of Community and Junior. These processes are coordinated under the leadership of the Vice President of Instruction who is the designated Accreditation Liaison Officer for the District.
